

remotes for the Evening of the 14th inst. This being the day recommended by President Tyler as a suitable period for the people of the United States to "humble themselves under the dispensation of Divine Providence," and "to recognize His righteous government over the children of men," the following exercises will take place in the Court House in this place, this evening, commencing at early candle-light, pursuant to arrangements made by the committee:

SINGING.—BY THE CHORUS.
"Hark from the Tomb."—CATHA.

PRAYER.—BY THE REV. MR. BENNETT.

SINGING.—BY THE CHORUS.

The following appropriate lines have been selected:

Weep—for a spirit fled—
Mourn, for the fatal stroke!
By which life's silver thread
And golden bowl are broke!

A warrior lived—a Christian died!—
Sorrow should slumber in our pride!
Go—bring the battle blade!
His helmet and his plume!

And be his trophies laid,
Beside him in the tomb!
Where files of time marked veterans come,
With martial tramp and muffled drum.

Give to the earth this frame!
'Twas born but to decay:
Not so his deathless name!
That cannot pass away!

In youth, in manhood and in age,
He dignified his country's page.
Green be the willow-bough
Above the swelling mound
Where sleeps the hero now
In consecrated ground.

His monument his fame endears—
His epitaph—a nation's tears.

ORATION.—BY JOHN N. CROFTS, Esq.,
On the life and character of the late President.

SINGING.—BY THE CHORUS.

(The following appropriate poetry has been written by a young lady of this place, which will close the exercises.)

"Thou art gone to the grave," and we deeply deplore thee;

The sun of thy glory has set in the tomb—
The tears of a nation are fast falling o'er thee,
And the nation is shrouded in sorrow and gloom.

"Thou art gone to the grave," we no longer behold thee;

Not look up to thee as a ruler and guide;
On the records of fame has thy country enrolled thee,
Among her proud heroes for courage long tried.

"Thou art gone to the grave"—earthly honors forsaking,

In vain were our wishes thy life to prolong;
Thy labors have ended, and thou art partaking
The joys of the blest and the seraphim's song.

"Thou art gone to the grave"—but 'twere wrong to deplore thee;

When God was thy ransom, thy guardian and guide,
He gave thee and took thee, and soon will restore thee,
Where death hath no sting since the Savior hath died."

Martin Van Buren.

We glory in having such a man as Martin Van Buren as a pioneer in the cause of democracy—of popular rights.

He has been the maker of his own fortune. Unaided by family influences he educated himself—his abilities cannot but ever command respect, and his sterling worth and integrity will ever secure him the confidence of the democracy of this Union.

This man, like many others who have dared to be the open advocates of the rights and interests of the great mass of community, has been opposed by the purse power aristocracy of our land, and the foulest calumnies heaped upon his head.

We ask no better compliment than this for the name of that person who stands at the head of this article.—Hartford Democrat.

Pennsylvania Appointments.

BELA BADGER!—the notorious Glastonbury "pipe-layer"—is appointed Naval Officer, for the port of Philadelphia, in place of John Horn, removed.

The Boston Post, in speaking of the appointment of Badger, very justly remarks:—

"The appointment of Bela Badger, of Philadelphia, the great pipe-layer, to an important office, will astonish the honest people of the country—a reward for the violation of law and the most sacred rights of freedom! Is this the result of President Tyler's resort to the Fathers of the great Republican school for advice and instruction?" No, no—this act was dictated by false oracles—those whose counsel, if he follows it, will bring sorrow and mortification to his soul and disgrace upon the nation.

And we would ask, if this appointment is the result of the emphatic declaration in President Tyler's Address, that "thus far and no farther" should the "official corps" be permitted to go? Why not, with the same propriety, appoint the infamous Glastonbury to office, who is acknowledged by his most devoted party to be a man who has been in the habit of selling his services to the highest bidder?

This is the man who was in New York, and who was in the habit of selling his services to the highest bidder.

It will be recollected that those letters speak of a consignment of hired voters as a shipment of yarn, and that Badger admitted in his voluntary affidavit that he had used this figure of speech to avoid detection, if the letter should happen to fall into the hands of the other party.

The Albany Argus, in speaking of Bela Badger, says:

"This is the same person who made such a conspicuous figure in the frauds perpetrated in Philadelphia. It was proved before a committee of the Pennsylvania legislature in 1839, that bribes were offered and paid to change the result of the polls. A witness testifies that Bela Badger, the federal return judge of the Northern Liberties, paid him fifty dollars as a reward to reduce the democratic majority in that ward, and promised him two hundred dollars if he would reduce it fifty votes. Badger also furnished him with federal votes with instructions to palm them after dark upon his democratic friends who could not read."

Truth.—He who would live in clarity with all men, speak evil of no one, look not upon evil and hear no scandal, must live alone, be dumb, be deaf and blind.

Both Alike.—"You needn't feel so big," said a butcher's man to a young doctor; "for we are both of a trade. We are both killing."

"My dear," said a lady to a man, "what is the matter with your bellious liver?"

A Great Pork Eater.—The Boston Mail says there is a man in that city who eats so much pork, that he squeals in his sleep.
